A RELIGIOUS QUESTION

Disturbs the Jarmony of the House of Representatives.

CAPTAIN PRATT'S STATEMENT

To at the Catholic Church Maintains a Powerful Lobby in Washington to Engineer Indian School Appropriations Italses the Ire of Several Congressmen Whose Toes Were Stepped On-.-Mr. Pendleton Among Them. How They Got Their Revenge. Other Congressional News.

Washington, March 1 .- The opening proceedings in the house to-day were devolut of special interest. Mr. Geary, of California, was recognized to ask consent for the passage of a bill for the disposal and sale of the lands known as the Klamwer River Indian reservation in California. There was no objection and California. There was no objection and the bill was passed.

Mr. Dockery, of Missouri, from the committee on appropriations, reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill and it was referred to the committee of the whole. The house then went into committee of the whole (Mr. Bynum, of Indiana in the chair) on the In-dian appropriation bill. The Catholic church, and the charge that it maintains a lobby at Washing-ton to manipulate appropriations in behalf of the Indian schools, were subjects of three hours acrimonious dis-cussion. The immediate cause of the religious discussion was the section of the bill making appropriation for the Carlisle Indian school. It was stated in the house that Capt. R. II. Pratt, of the United States army, superintendent of that school, in speaking of the attack made in the house against the appropriation for the Indian school had said: They were made through the Catholic church, in paying Congressmen to attack the national schools because they are detrimental to their parochial schools, which are given three times the amount by the government that other denominations receive." other denominations receive.

Congressmen Mansur, of Missouri, Stockdale, of Mississippi, and Pendle-ton, of West Virginia, who were underton, of West Virginia, who were under-stood by implication to be the congress-men referred to, made a lively attack on Captain Pratt and demanded as a pen-alty for his utterances that the $1,000 appropriation which he annually re-ceives as superintendent of the Carlisle Indian school he stricken from the In-Indian school be stricken from the Indian appropriation bill. The house was powerless to express its displeasure in any more forcible way than this, as Captain Pratt being an officer in the United States army, his rank and pay as captain are beyond the reach and regulation of Congress.

The superintendent of the Indian school had many defenders in the house, however, and it was more his reiterated nowever, and it was more his reiterated declaration by telegraph to-day than the original newspaper statement that finally led the house to adopt the amendment cutting off his salary 'as superintendent. Several of his congressional friends, who doubted whether the superintendent has made the state. the superintendent has made the state ment attributed to him in the Associated Press dispatches, telegraphed him to-day to know exact declarations. The answer which was wired back and sub-sequently read in the house was about as bad as the original statement.

"My remarks," telegraphed Captain Pratt, "were that Catholics got more than double as much of Indian school appropriations as all other denomina-tions combined; that they maintain a powerful lobby in Washington and manipulate politics to accomplish their purpose. These were the general state-ments, having no bearing whatever on individual members of Congress, much less to Mr. Mansur, in whose general views I concur."

This was quite satisfactory to Mr.
Mansur, but it was not very consoling to anybody else, and its reading had the effect of causing the house to promptly adopt the proposed amendment. Mr. Bynum, of Indiana, presided in the committee of the whole when the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill was resumed, and the attack on Captain Pratt, first begun last night, was revived in a motion of Mr. Mansur to strike out the $1,000 extra annual allowance Captain Pratt as superintendent of Car-lisle school. After a long debate the

The previous question having been ordered, Mr. Pickler, of South Dakota, demanded a separate vote on the amendment providing that when yearanteement providing that when year and cies shall hereafter occur in Indian agencies they shall be filled by army officers detailed for the duty by the President. The amendment was adopted—yeas 142, nays 54.

Mr. Joseph, of New Mexico, was fortunate enough to secure not with tand-arr. Joseph, of New Jexico, was in-tunate enough to secure, notwithstand-ing Mr. Holman's opposition, the adop-tion of an amendment increasing by almost $5,000 the appropriation for the Indian school at Santa Fe. The bill was then passed.

Mr. McMillin, of Tennessee, from the committee on ways and means, reported the free wool bill, which was referred to the committee of the whole, together with the report of the minority presented by Mr. Burrows, of Michi-

Mr. McMillin stated that it had been the intention of the committee to call this bill up for consideration during the latter part of the week, but that owing to the illness of Chairman Springer he would not call it up until Taesday next.

In the Senate.

Washington, D. C., March 1 .- After the transaction of routine business the Idaho election case was taken up and Mr. Sanders addressed the senate in defense of Mr. Clagget's right to the seat Mr. Morgan made constitutional argument against the right of Mr. Dubois to occupy a seat in the senate. #### THE SILVER BILL

Anti-Free Coinage Democrats Working Like Beavers to Prevent Consideration. The Free Tie Bill.

. Washington, March 1 .- The New England and New York anti-silver Democrats and some of the more pronounced opponents of free silver from other states were in frequent conference to-day at the house canvassing the situation and endeavoring to concoct measures by which additional strength might be secured for their side in the coming fight in the house over the silver question. As a result of these conterences, it was assorted by several anti-silver Democrats that they had suffi-cient Democratic votes to defeat the adoption of the report of the sub-committee, giving time for consideration of score the Bland bill, provided the Republicans stood by them.

Mr. Wilbiams, of Massachusetts, who was asked whether he had any assurances that the Republicans would stand by them, replied that he had not and did not know what the Republicans would do.

would do.

It is estimated by the anti-silver Democrats that, there are from twenty to thirty Democrats opposed to the consideration of the silver bill at this time, in addition to those who would vote against a free coinage bill if it were upon passage. An inquiry made of a num-ber of Republicans shows that thus far there has been no conference among there has been no conference among them, nor any agreement for concerted action on the question of consideration of the silver bill.

Mr. Pierce, Mr. Bland and other silver men express undiminished confidence in their ability to defeat on a vote any proposition looking to the shelving or defeat of the free silver bill. Mr. Bartine, of Nevada, who has led the fight among the Republican members for free coinnee, says that he does not charge of the stage. Two were on duty to-night. James M. Moffatt, who plays the Lone Fisherman, objected to their presence, as it interfered with the performers. The fireuen would not budge and Moffatt would not run up the curtain until they left. Manager McLaughlin was called in and the difficulty was settled by one of the firemen remaining in the rear of the stage. A difficulty in the rear of the stage. A difficulty also arose between the manager of the Opera house and C. H. Smith, manager among the Republican members for free coinage, says that he does not believe his party will vote against con-sideration, and that he thinks ten or more of the Republicans will be found voting for the passage of the bill.

The report of the Republican minority of the ways and means committee sold for the gallery until after 8 o'clock.
When the seats were finally sold a rush took place and the efforts of four policemen were required to prevent the doors being broken down.

of the ways and means committee against the bill placing cotton bagging, cotton ties and machinery for manufactortion the same upon the free list has been prepared by Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, and filed with the committee. Of cotton bagging the report says:

"This manufacture was created by a protective tariff and it is dependent upon the same policy for its preservation because of the difference between tion because of the difference between the rates of wages paid here and abroad and for other reasons. It is perfectly apparent that any reduction of the duty below the protection point would be a serious blow to the laborers of this country employed in this industry. There are now invested in this industry in this country over eight millions of dollars. There are ten mills conducting business independently of each other business independently of each other our and in full competition.

"To drive our own manufacturers from the field is to give the domination of our manufacturers, who will then dictate prices. To encourage home manufacture is to encourage competition, as experience shows, and thus to reduce prices to a minimum. In regard to cotton ties the report says: The measure recommended by the majority proposes to admit cotton ties free, but retain the protective duty on barrel hoops. No reason has been given for making such distinction and it is difficult to imagine why either should be put on the free list.

"Nor will the proposed measure re-sult in the admission free of cotton ties only. Under the language of the pro-posed law, hoop or band iron and all sizes to the dimensions of wagon tires, and even to the kind of iron that might be made into blooms, will come in with-out payment of duty."

The minority also combats the proposition to place machinery for manufac-turing cotton ties and cotton bagging on the free list.

KANSAS REPUBLICANS.

The Largest Meeting the Club League Has Ever Held,

Topeka, Kas., March 1.-Topeka is in the hands of the Republicans of Kansas to-day. The hotels are crowded. It is the largest convention of the Republican League ever held in Kansas. At 10 this morning every seat in representa-tive hall was filled. President Bailey called the assembly to order. The committee on credentials, resolutions and rules were appointed. Pending the reports speeches were made. Mr. Barton, of Abilene, said that "David B. Hill was the gentleman the Republicans had to face and the Democrats to swallow." face and the Democrats to swallow."

Democratic Factions in "Little Rhedy." PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 1.-There has been a warm campaign in the state among the Democratic factions in preparation for the convention, which occurs March 2. It has been Cleveland for President and David S. Baker, jr., for governor on the one side and Hill for President and W. T. C. Wardwell for governor on the other. In the convention there will be 216 delegates, and of these 154 have already been chosen. The straight Cleveland men chaim 119 of this total, or ten more than a majorof this total, or ten more than a major-ity. The opposition to Cleveland claim they are merely working to get an un-pledged delegation to Chicago.

The Democratic Wigwam.

CHICACO, March, 1 .- The latest plan for the wigwam to accomodate the Democratic national convention was laid be fore the committee on arrangements li-le school. After a long debate the motion to strike out was agreed to, 93 to 27, and the committee rose and reported the bill to the house.

The previous question having been ordered, Mr. Pickler, of South Dakota, demanded a separate vote on the demanded a separate vote on the commodation of 300 people. #### A TEST CASE.

But the Whisky Trust May Find that it is Not Brought for Fun.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., March 1 .- Nelson Morris, one of the directors of the cattle feeding and distilling company, for whose arrest a warrant has been is-sued, is at present in this city. When told of the action of the United States officials he said to a reporter that he had been notified by a private telegram of the order for his arrest. He denied that there was any such organization as the whisky trust, and said the whole matter was merely an attack on the part of the government, and that the cattle feeding and distilling company had been select-ed for a test case.

GARZA'S PROPOSITION

To Surrender Refused by Gen. Stanley-It Must be Unconditional.

San Antonio, Texas, March 1-It has now come to light that, primarily, the mission of Seno: Gonzales, Garza's father-in-law, in visiting this city, was to confer with Gen. Stanley and under certain conditions arrange for a surrender of Garza to the military authorities. The matter was delicately broached to the general through attorneys, but he refused to entertain any proposition other than an unconditional surrender. Gen. Stanley has knowledge that Garza was seen not more than a week ago in the vicinity of Patito Blanco ranch, and that he is still hiding in ambush. Meanwhile the troops will be kept scouting in the vicinity.

DYNAMITERS BLUNDERED.

They Intended to Destroy the Spanish Embassy in Paris.

Panis, March 1 .- The attempt yesterday morning to blow up the residence of the Princess de Sagan promises to be a nine-days' wonder. Nobody can conceive why the princess should be attacked in this manner. She is one of the most popular members of Parisian society, and is a favorite with the popu-lace on account of her liberal dealings and expenditures and the amiability of her disposition. That the most ruthless of Nihilists should attempt to destroy her dwelling would seem to be an act of incredible irony.

It now appears that the dynamiters made a blunder. The Spanish embassy
